

Past events and background actions

Teaching guide

Put a finished event in its time context.

Understand the distinction

The past simple presents a finished event or a past state: I arrived at six; the room was quiet.
The past continuous presents an activity in progress around a past time: I was waiting at six.

Combine them to show background and an event: I was cooking when the phone rang. This does not always mean the first activity stopped. Add then, before, or after when the order needs to be explicit.

Compare the patterns

EVENT

The bus arrived at six.

A completed event.

BACKGROUND

I was waiting at the stop.

An activity in progress.

TOGETHER

I was waiting when the bus arrived.

The arrival happened during the wait.

Read each example and notice how its form changes the meaning. Use these distinctions to choose your answers on the following pages.

Check your understanding

Circle one answer for each question. There is one correct choice among the options shown. Check the answer key after choosing.

1. Choose: At eight yesterday, I ____ dinner. (was cooking / cook)

- A. cook
- B. am cooking
- C. was cooking

2. Which happened during the walk: I was walking when it began to rain?

- A. It began to rain.
- B. The walking began after the rain stopped.
- C. The walk had already ended.

3. Does was reading when the phone rang prove the reading stopped?

- A. Yes. Every past continuous action stops at the next event.
- B. No. The sentence does not state that.
- C. Yes. The phone call necessarily ended the reading.

Choose the best response

Choose the response that fits the situation. Check both its meaning and its grammar.

4. A neighbor knocked while you were working at home yesterday. Which pair reports that background and event?

A. I was working at home yesterday. A neighbor knocked on the door.

B. I am working at home yesterday. A neighbor knocks on the door.

C. I will work at home tomorrow. A neighbor may knock on the door.

Review your choices

Use the answer explanations on the next page. If you chose a different answer, find the detail that makes it unsuitable and try the question again.

Practice online

The web lesson gives feedback for the option you select and lets you try again. No written response is required.

Answers and explanation

1. C. was cooking

An activity was in progress at a past time.

A: The time is in the past. Was cooking presents an activity in progress then.

B: Am cooking refers to the present, not eight yesterday.

2. A. It began to rain.

The walk is the background activity.

B: The sentence says the rain began during the walk.

C: Was walking presents the walk as ongoing when the rain began.

3. B. No. The sentence does not state that.

The reader may have continued.

A: The grammatical form alone does not establish that outcome.

C: When links the events but does not state whether the person stopped reading.

4. A. I was working at home yesterday. A neighbor knocked on the door.

Was working gives the ongoing background; knocked gives the event.

B: Yesterday needs past-time forms for these reported events.

C: This changes the account into a future possibility.

A practical teaching sequence

1. Notice (2 minutes)

Read the comparison examples with the learners. Point out the meaning and form that distinguish each pattern.

2. Choose (4 minutes)

Learners select one option for each of the three checks. Keep the answer key covered. Use the selected option's explanation rather than presenting a generic model as feedback.

3. Apply (5 minutes)

A neighbor knocked while you were working at home yesterday. Which pair reports that background and event?

Learners choose the response that fits this situation. All responses in this activity are multiple choice; do not replace the choices with a written-answer task.

4. Review (3 minutes)

Compare selected options with the key. Use the option-specific notes to explain why a distractor does not fit. Let learners change their selection and try again.

Scope of the answer key

Each question has one correct option among the choices shown. This does not mean that every other way to express the idea is wrong. Preserve the qualifications in the teaching notes.

Feedback criteria

Check both grammatical form and the stated situation. A correct option answers this question; four correct choices do not certify a learner's overall proficiency.
