

Human Resources English Dialogue Lab

Realistic field-specific dialogues, role-play variations, and observer checklists

Audience: HR business partners, recruiters, talent managers, people managers, employee-relations staff, learning teams, compensation analysts, and HR-adjacent leaders

Focus: A human-resources English curriculum for hiring, onboarding, performance feedback, employee relations, investigations, benefits, compensation, policy explanation, workplace conflict, and dignity-preserving directness.

Designed for advanced ESL learners who already use professional English and need industry-specific terminology, realistic meetings, role-play pressure, careful pushback, and polished workplace outputs.

Teaching stance: this is language and workplace-communication training, not legal, medical, financial, safety, or regulatory advice. Instructors should connect every scenario to the learner's current company policies, local rules, and approved procedures.

Dialogue Practice Method

Read each exchange once for meaning, once for tone, and once for decision structure. Then complete the missing language by selecting one of four options and check the rationale at the end.

1. Recruiting, Screening, and Candidate Experience

Setting

A hiring manager rejects candidates for not feeling like a fit.

Speaker	Line
Recruiter	Use the manager's intuition.
Hiring manager	Selection criteria, interview evidence, bias risk, and documentation need clarity.
ESL learner	I understand the goal, but we need to separate urgency from control. For this decision, I need to confirm job requirement, structured interview, the owner, and the evidence standard before we commit.
Recruiter	What would let us move forward without slowing everything down?
ESL learner	Let's document the assumption, define the risk trigger, and create a short candidate-debrief guide. Then we can decide whether to proceed, escalate, or revise the plan.

Language notes

- The learner names the field-specific control point instead of giving a vague no: job requirement, structured interview.
- The response preserves the business goal while adding evidence, owner, and next-step discipline.

Three-step decision practice

1. Complete the field language

Choose the term that belongs in this decision point.

Before we act, I need to confirm the _____ and how it affects structured interview.

Option	Phrase
A	candidate experience
B	evidence threshold
C	job requirement
D	bias

2. Choose the strongest professional response

Select the response that preserves the relationship while setting an evidence-based boundary.

A stakeholder says, 'Use the manager's intuition.' Which response gives a useful, professional form of pushback?

Option	Phrase
A	We should act now and resolve job requirement after the result is visible.
B	I understand the urgency. I need to verify job requirement and structured interview against the stated constraint before I recommend the next step.
C	operating constraint
D	decision owner

3. Select the next decision move

Choose the action that turns the discussion into a controlled workplace decision.

Given this situation - A hiring manager rejects candidates for not feeling like a fit. - what should happen next?

Option	Phrase
A	Wait for the problem to become visible before assigning an owner or evidence source.
B	evidence threshold
C	approval path
D	Review the stated constraint with the accountable owner, then prepare the candidate-debrief guide with the evidence, tradeoff, and requested decision.

Observer checklist

- Did the learner name the decision and the risk?
- Did the learner use at least two industry terms accurately?
- Did the learner give a concrete next step without overpromising?

2. Onboarding and Role Clarity

Setting

A new employee is confused about ownership after two weeks.

Speaker	Line
HR business partner	Tell them to be more proactive.
Team manager	Role scope, manager check-ins, training, and success measures may be unclear.
ESL learner	I understand the goal, but we need to separate urgency from control. For this decision, I need to confirm role clarity, onboarding, the owner, and the evidence standard before we commit.
HR business partner	What would let us move forward without slowing everything down?
ESL learner	Let's document the assumption, define the risk trigger, and create a short onboarding reset plan. Then we can decide whether to proceed, escalate, or revise the plan.

Language notes

- The learner names the field-specific control point instead of giving a vague no: role clarity, onboarding.
- The response preserves the business goal while adding evidence, owner, and next-step discipline.

Three-step decision practice

1. Complete the field language

Choose the term that belongs in this decision point.

Before we act, I need to confirm the _____ and how it affects onboarding.

Option	Phrase
A	manager check-in
B	success measure
C	role clarity

Option	Phrase
D	onboarding

2. Choose the strongest professional response

Select the response that preserves the relationship while setting an evidence-based boundary.

A stakeholder says, 'Tell them to be more proactive.' Which response gives a useful, professional form of pushback?

Option	Phrase
A	We should act now and resolve role clarity after the result is visible.
B	A onboarding reset plan is unnecessary; verbal assurance should be enough.
C	I disagree, but I cannot name the boundary or the decision the group needs to make.
D	I understand the urgency. I need to verify role clarity and onboarding against the stated constraint before I recommend the next step.

3. Select the next decision move

Choose the action that turns the discussion into a controlled workplace decision.

Given this situation - A new employee is confused about ownership after two weeks. - what should happen next?

Option	Phrase
A	Wait for the problem to become visible before assigning an owner or evidence source.
B	Review the stated constraint with the accountable owner, then prepare the onboarding reset plan with the evidence, tradeoff, and requested decision.
C	Accept the request immediately because the stakeholder has already expressed urgency.
D	Send every available detail to senior leaders without identifying the decision they need to make.

Observer checklist

- Did the learner name the decision and the risk?
- Did the learner use at least two industry terms accurately?
- Did the learner give a concrete next step without overpromising?

3. Performance Feedback and Documentation

Setting

A manager wants to put an employee on a warning after months of vague concerns.

Speaker	Line
HRBP	Issue the warning immediately.
Department manager	The employee may not have received clear expectations, examples, or support.
ESL learner	I understand the goal, but we need to separate urgency from control. For this decision, I need to confirm performance gap, documentation, the owner, and the evidence standard before we commit.
HRBP	What would let us move forward without slowing everything down?
ESL learner	Let's document the assumption, define the risk trigger, and create a short performance feedback script. Then we can decide whether to proceed, escalate, or revise the plan.

Language notes

- The learner names the field-specific control point instead of giving a vague no: performance gap, documentation.
- The response preserves the business goal while adding evidence, owner, and next-step discipline.

Three-step decision practice

1. Complete the field language

Choose the term that belongs in this decision point.

Before we act, I need to confirm the _____ and how it affects documentation.

Option	Phrase
A	approval path
B	operating constraint
C	performance gap
D	evidence threshold

2. Choose the strongest professional response

Select the response that preserves the relationship while setting an evidence-based boundary.

A stakeholder says, 'Issue the warning immediately.' Which response gives a useful, professional form of pushback?

Option	Phrase
A	I understand the urgency. I need to verify performance gap and documentation against the stated constraint before I recommend the next step.
B	We should act now and resolve performance gap after the result is visible.
C	A performance feedback script is unnecessary; verbal assurance should be enough.
D	I disagree, but I cannot name the boundary or the decision the group needs to make.

3. Select the next decision move

Choose the action that turns the discussion into a controlled workplace decision.

Given this situation - A manager wants to put an employee on a warning after months of vague concerns. - what should happen next?

Option	Phrase
A	Accept the request immediately because the stakeholder has already expressed urgency.
B	Send every available detail to senior leaders without identifying the decision they need to make.
C	Wait for the problem to become visible before assigning an owner or evidence source.
D	Review the stated constraint with the accountable owner, then prepare the performance feedback script with the evidence, tradeoff, and requested decision.

Observer checklist

- Did the learner name the decision and the risk?
- Did the learner use at least two industry terms accurately?
- Did the learner give a concrete next step without overpromising?

4. Employee Relations and Investigations

Setting

An employee reports harassment by a high performer.

Speaker	Line
Employee-relations specialist	Resolve it quietly because the accused is important.
Senior manager	Investigation process, anti-retaliation, evidence, and confidentiality are critical.
ESL learner	I understand the goal, but we need to separate urgency from control. For this decision, I need to confirm employee relations, harassment, the owner, and the evidence standard before we commit.
Employee-relations specialist	What would let us move forward without slowing everything down?
ESL learner	Let's document the assumption, define the risk trigger, and create a short investigation intake summary. Then we can decide whether to proceed, escalate, or revise the plan.

Language notes

- The learner names the field-specific control point instead of giving a vague no: employee relations, harassment.
- The response preserves the business goal while adding evidence, owner, and next-step discipline.

Three-step decision practice1. Complete the field language

Choose the term that belongs in this decision point.

Before we act, I need to confirm the _____ and how it affects harassment.

Option	Phrase
A	employee relations
B	confidentiality
C	evidence threshold
D	approval path

2. Choose the strongest professional response

Select the response that preserves the relationship while setting an evidence-based boundary.

A stakeholder says, 'Resolve it quietly because the accused is important.' Which response gives a useful, professional form of pushback?

Option	Phrase
A	A investigation intake summary is unnecessary; verbal assurance should be enough.
B	I disagree, but I cannot name the boundary or the decision the group needs to make.
C	I understand the urgency. I need to verify employee relations and harassment against the stated constraint before I recommend the next step.
D	We should act now and resolve employee relations after the result is visible.

3. Select the next decision move

Choose the action that turns the discussion into a controlled workplace decision.

Given this situation - An employee reports harassment by a high performer. - what should happen next?

Option	Phrase
A	Review the stated constraint with the accountable owner, then prepare the investigation intake summary with the evidence, tradeoff, and requested decision.
B	Accept the request immediately because the stakeholder has already expressed urgency.
C	Send every available detail to senior leaders without identifying the decision they need to make.
D	Wait for the problem to become visible before assigning an owner or evidence source.

Observer checklist

- Did the learner name the decision and the risk?
- Did the learner use at least two industry terms accurately?
- Did the learner give a concrete next step without overpromising?

5. Compensation, Benefits, and Equity

Setting

An employee says a peer is paid more for the same job.

Speaker	Line
Compensation analyst	Promise an immediate adjustment.
Employee	Pay bands, job leveling, equity review, budget, and communication process matter.
ESL learner	I understand the goal, but we need to separate urgency from control. For this decision, I need to confirm pay band, job level, the owner, and the evidence standard before we commit.
Compensation analyst	What would let us move forward without slowing everything down?
ESL learner	Let's document the assumption, define the risk trigger, and create a short compensation response. Then we can decide whether to proceed, escalate, or revise the plan.

Language notes

- The learner names the field-specific control point instead of giving a vague no: pay band, job level.
- The response preserves the business goal while adding evidence, owner, and next-step discipline.

Three-step decision practice

1. Complete the field language

Choose the term that belongs in this decision point.

Before we act, I need to confirm the _____ and how it affects job level.

Option	Phrase
A	operating constraint
B	pay band
C	evidence threshold
D	approval path

2. Choose the strongest professional response

Select the response that preserves the relationship while setting an evidence-based boundary.

A stakeholder says, 'Promise an immediate adjustment.' Which response gives a useful, professional form of pushback?

Option	Phrase
A	We should act now and resolve pay band after the result is visible.
B	A compensation response is unnecessary; verbal assurance should be enough.
C	I disagree, but I cannot name the boundary or the decision the group needs to make.
D	I understand the urgency. I need to verify pay band and job level against the stated constraint before I recommend the next step.

3. Select the next decision move

Choose the action that turns the discussion into a controlled workplace decision.

Given this situation - An employee says a peer is paid more for the same job. - what should happen next?

Option	Phrase
A	approval path
B	Review the stated constraint with the accountable owner, then prepare the compensation response with the evidence, tradeoff, and requested decision.
C	Wait for the problem to become visible before assigning an owner or evidence source.
D	evidence threshold

Observer checklist

- Did the learner name the decision and the risk?
- Did the learner use at least two industry terms accurately?
- Did the learner give a concrete next step without overpromising?

6. Policy Communication and Compliance

Setting

A manager wants to make an exception to leave policy.

Speaker	Line
HR operations lead	Approve it because the employee is valued.
Line manager	Consistency, accommodation, legal risk, and manager precedent need review.
ESL learner	I understand the goal, but we need to separate urgency from control. For this decision, I need to confirm policy, accommodation, the owner, and the evidence standard before we commit.
HR operations lead	What would let us move forward without slowing everything down?
ESL learner	Let's document the assumption, define the risk trigger, and create a short policy exception review. Then we can decide whether to proceed, escalate, or revise the plan.

Language notes

- The learner names the field-specific control point instead of giving a vague no: policy, accommodation.
- The response preserves the business goal while adding evidence, owner, and next-step discipline.

Three-step decision practice

1. Complete the field language

Choose the term that belongs in this decision point.

Before we act, I need to confirm the _____ and how it affects accommodation.

Option	Phrase
A	policy
B	evidence threshold
C	approval path
D	operating constraint

2. Choose the strongest professional response

Select the response that preserves the relationship while setting an evidence-based boundary.

A stakeholder says, 'Approve it because the employee is valued.' Which response gives a useful, professional form of pushback?

Option	Phrase
A	We should act now and resolve policy after the result is visible.
B	I understand the urgency. I need to verify policy and accommodation against the stated constraint before I recommend the next step.
C	operating constraint
D	decision owner

3. Select the next decision move

Choose the action that turns the discussion into a controlled workplace decision.

Given this situation - A manager wants to make an exception to leave policy. - what should happen next?

Option	Phrase
A	decision owner
B	Review the stated constraint with the accountable owner, then prepare the policy exception review with the evidence, tradeoff, and requested decision.
C	approval path
D	operating constraint

Observer checklist

- Did the learner name the decision and the risk?
- Did the learner use at least two industry terms accurately?
- Did the learner give a concrete next step without overpromising?

7. Conflict Mediation and Manager Coaching

Setting

Two team leads accuse each other of blocking work.

Speaker	Line
HRBP	Move one of them to another team.
Functional leader	Shared expectations, facts, behavior, and operating agreements should be tested first.
ESL learner	I understand the goal, but we need to separate urgency from control. For this decision, I need to confirm mediation, behavioral example, the owner, and the evidence standard before we commit.
HRBP	What would let us move forward without slowing everything down?
ESL learner	Let's document the assumption, define the risk trigger, and create a short mediation opening script. Then we can decide whether to proceed, escalate, or revise the plan.

Language notes

- The learner names the field-specific control point instead of giving a vague no: mediation, behavioral example.
- The response preserves the business goal while adding evidence, owner, and next-step discipline.

Three-step decision practice

1. Complete the field language

Choose the term that belongs in this decision point.

Before we act, I need to confirm the _____ and how it affects behavioral example.

Option	Phrase
A	mediation
B	operating constraint
C	decision owner
D	behavioral example

2. Choose the strongest professional response

Select the response that preserves the relationship while setting an evidence-based boundary.

A stakeholder says, 'Move one of them to another team.' Which response gives a useful, professional form of pushback?

Option	Phrase
A	A mediation opening script is unnecessary; verbal assurance should be enough.
B	I disagree, but I cannot name the boundary or the decision the group needs to make.
C	I understand the urgency. I need to verify mediation and behavioral example against the stated constraint before I recommend the next step.
D	We should act now and resolve mediation after the result is visible.

3. Select the next decision move

Choose the action that turns the discussion into a controlled workplace decision.

Given this situation - Two team leads accuse each other of blocking work. - what should happen next?

Option	Phrase
A	approval path
B	operating constraint

Option	Phrase
C	decision owner
D	Review the stated constraint with the accountable owner, then prepare the mediation opening script with the evidence, tradeoff, and requested decision.

Observer checklist

- Did the learner name the decision and the risk?
- Did the learner use at least two industry terms accurately?
- Did the learner give a concrete next step without overpromising?

8. Restructuring and Sensitive Communication

Setting

Leadership plans a reorg but wants managers to hint at it early.

Speaker	Line
People leader	Give employees informal warnings.
Executive	Timing, confidentiality, legal review, messaging, and dignity are essential.
ESL learner	I understand the goal, but we need to separate urgency from control. For this decision, I need to confirm restructuring, position elimination, the owner, and the evidence standard before we commit.
People leader	What would let us move forward without slowing everything down?
ESL learner	Let's document the assumption, define the risk trigger, and create a short reorg communication checklist. Then we can decide whether to proceed, escalate, or revise the plan.

Language notes

- The learner names the field-specific control point instead of giving a vague no: restructuring, position elimination.
- The response preserves the business goal while adding evidence, owner, and next-step discipline.

Three-step decision practice

1. Complete the field language

Choose the term that belongs in this decision point.

Before we act, I need to confirm the _____ and how it affects position elimination.

Option	Phrase
A	evidence threshold
B	approval path
C	operating constraint
D	restructuring

2. Choose the strongest professional response

Select the response that preserves the relationship while setting an evidence-based boundary.

A stakeholder says, 'Give employees informal warnings.' Which response gives a useful, professional form of pushback?

Option	Phrase
A	A reorg communication checklist is unnecessary; verbal assurance should be enough.
B	I disagree, but I cannot name the boundary or the decision the group needs to make.
C	I understand the urgency. I need to verify restructuring and position elimination against the stated constraint before I recommend the next step.
D	We should act now and resolve restructuring after the result is visible.

3. Select the next decision move

Choose the action that turns the discussion into a controlled workplace decision.

Given this situation - Leadership plans a reorg but wants managers to hint at it early. - what should happen next?

Option	Phrase
A	approval path
B	Review the stated constraint with the accountable owner, then prepare the reorg communication checklist with the evidence, tradeoff, and requested decision.
C	Wait for the problem to become visible before assigning an owner or evidence source.
D	evidence threshold

Observer checklist

- Did the learner name the decision and the risk?
- Did the learner use at least two industry terms accurately?
- Did the learner give a concrete next step without overpromising?

Answer Key and Rationale

Check each stage after completing the practice sequence. The rationale explains the decision skill the strongest response demonstrates.

Recruiting, Screening, and Candidate Experience - 1. Complete the field language

Correct answer	Why it fits
C. job requirement	'job requirement' is the field-specific variable that must be checked before the team can proceed responsibly. This is the decision variable the learner must confirm before the team acts.

Recruiting, Screening, and Candidate Experience - 2. Choose the strongest professional response

Correct answer	Why it fits
B. I understand the urgency. I need to verify job requirement and structured interview against the stated constraint before I recommend the next step.	The strongest response names the field terms, the constraint, and the condition for a recommendation without sounding defensive or passive. This response is specific, respectful, and appropriately conditional. It converts pressure into a controlled decision.

Recruiting, Screening, and Candidate Experience - 3. Select the next decision move

Correct answer	Why it fits
D. Review the stated constraint with the accountable owner, then prepare the candidate-debrief guide with the evidence, tradeoff, and requested decision.	The best next move makes the evidence, tradeoff, owner, and requested decision visible in a concise workplace artifact. This sequence creates a concise, decision-ready artifact with a clear owner and evidence boundary.

Onboarding and Role Clarity - 1. Complete the field language

Correct answer	Why it fits
C. role clarity	'role clarity' is the field-specific variable that must be checked before the team can proceed responsibly. This is the decision variable the learner must confirm before the team acts.

Onboarding and Role Clarity - 2. Choose the strongest professional response

Correct answer	Why it fits
D. I understand the urgency. I need to verify role clarity and onboarding against the stated constraint before I recommend the next step.	The strongest response names the field terms, the constraint, and the condition for a recommendation without sounding defensive or passive. This response is specific, respectful, and appropriately conditional. It converts pressure into a controlled decision.

Onboarding and Role Clarity - 3. Select the next decision move

Correct answer	Why it fits
B. Review the stated constraint with the accountable owner, then prepare the onboarding reset plan with the evidence, tradeoff, and requested decision.	The best next move makes the evidence, tradeoff, owner, and requested decision visible in a concise workplace artifact. This sequence creates a concise, decision-ready artifact with a clear owner and evidence boundary.

Performance Feedback and Documentation - 1. Complete the field language

Correct answer	Why it fits
C. performance gap	'performance gap' is the field-specific variable that must be checked before the team can proceed responsibly. This is the decision variable the learner must confirm before the team acts.

Performance Feedback and Documentation - 2. Choose the strongest professional response

Correct answer	Why it fits
A. I understand the urgency. I need to verify performance gap and documentation against the stated constraint before I recommend the next step.	The strongest response names the field terms, the constraint, and the condition for a recommendation without sounding defensive or passive. This response is specific, respectful, and appropriately conditional. It converts pressure into a controlled decision.

Performance Feedback and Documentation - 3. Select the next decision move

Correct answer	Why it fits
D. Review the stated constraint with the accountable owner, then prepare the performance feedback script with the evidence, tradeoff, and requested decision.	The best next move makes the evidence, tradeoff, owner, and requested decision visible in a concise workplace artifact. This sequence creates a concise, decision-ready artifact with a clear owner and evidence boundary.

Employee Relations and Investigations - 1. Complete the field language

Correct answer	Why it fits
A. employee relations	'employee relations' is the field-specific variable that must be checked before the team can proceed responsibly. This is the decision variable the learner must confirm before the team acts.

Employee Relations and Investigations - 2. Choose the strongest professional response

Correct answer	Why it fits
C. I understand the urgency. I need to verify employee relations and harassment against the stated constraint before I recommend the next step.	The strongest response names the field terms, the constraint, and the condition for a recommendation without sounding defensive or passive. This response is specific, respectful, and appropriately conditional. It converts pressure into a controlled decision.

Employee Relations and Investigations - 3. Select the next decision move

Correct answer	Why it fits
A. Review the stated constraint with the accountable owner, then prepare the investigation intake summary with the evidence, tradeoff, and requested decision.	The best next move makes the evidence, tradeoff, owner, and requested decision visible in a concise workplace artifact. This sequence creates a concise, decision-ready artifact with a clear owner and evidence boundary.

Compensation, Benefits, and Equity - 1. Complete the field language

Correct answer	Why it fits
B. pay band	'pay band' is the field-specific variable that must be checked before the team can proceed responsibly. This is the decision variable the learner must confirm before the team acts.

Compensation, Benefits, and Equity - 2. Choose the strongest professional response

Correct answer	Why it fits
D. I understand the urgency. I need to verify pay band and job level against the stated constraint before I recommend the next step.	The strongest response names the field terms, the constraint, and the condition for a recommendation without sounding defensive or passive. This response is specific, respectful, and appropriately conditional. It converts pressure into a controlled decision.

Compensation, Benefits, and Equity - 3. Select the next decision move

Correct answer	Why it fits
B. Review the stated constraint with the accountable owner, then prepare the compensation response with the evidence, tradeoff, and requested decision.	The best next move makes the evidence, tradeoff, owner, and requested decision visible in a concise workplace artifact. This sequence creates a concise, decision-ready artifact with a clear owner and evidence boundary.

Policy Communication and Compliance - 1. Complete the field language

Correct answer	Why it fits
A. policy	'policy' is the field-specific variable that must be checked before the team can proceed responsibly. This is the decision variable the learner must confirm before the team acts.

Policy Communication and Compliance - 2. Choose the strongest professional response

Correct answer	Why it fits
B. I understand the urgency. I need to verify policy and accommodation against the stated constraint before I recommend the next step.	The strongest response names the field terms, the constraint, and the condition for a recommendation without sounding defensive or passive. This response is specific, respectful, and appropriately conditional. It converts pressure into a controlled decision.

Policy Communication and Compliance - 3. Select the next decision move

Correct answer	Why it fits
B. Review the stated constraint with the accountable owner, then prepare the policy exception review with the evidence, tradeoff, and requested decision.	The best next move makes the evidence, tradeoff, owner, and requested decision visible in a concise workplace artifact. This sequence creates a concise, decision-ready artifact with a clear owner and evidence boundary.

Conflict Mediation and Manager Coaching - 1. Complete the field language

Correct answer	Why it fits
A. mediation	'mediation' is the field-specific variable that must be checked before the team can proceed responsibly. This is the decision variable the learner must confirm before the team acts.

Conflict Mediation and Manager Coaching - 2. Choose the strongest professional response

Correct answer	Why it fits
C. I understand the urgency. I need to verify mediation and behavioral example against the stated constraint before I recommend the next step.	The strongest response names the field terms, the constraint, and the condition for a recommendation without sounding defensive or passive. This response is specific, respectful, and appropriately conditional. It converts pressure into a controlled decision.

Conflict Mediation and Manager Coaching - 3. Select the next decision move

Correct answer	Why it fits
D. Review the stated constraint with the accountable owner, then prepare the mediation opening script with the evidence, tradeoff, and requested decision.	The best next move makes the evidence, tradeoff, owner, and requested decision visible in a concise workplace artifact. This sequence creates a concise, decision-ready artifact with a clear owner and evidence boundary.

Restructuring and Sensitive Communication - 1. Complete the field language

Correct answer	Why it fits
D. restructuring	'restructuring' is the field-specific variable that must be checked before the team can proceed responsibly. This is the decision variable the learner must confirm before the team acts.

Restructuring and Sensitive Communication - 2. Choose the strongest professional response

Correct answer	Why it fits
C. I understand the urgency. I need to verify restructuring and position elimination against the stated constraint before I recommend the next step.	The strongest response names the field terms, the constraint, and the condition for a recommendation without sounding defensive or passive. This response is specific, respectful, and appropriately conditional. It converts pressure into a controlled decision.

Restructuring and Sensitive Communication - 3. Select the next decision move

Correct answer	Why it fits
B. Review the stated constraint with the accountable owner, then prepare the reorg communication checklist with the evidence, tradeoff, and requested decision.	The best next move makes the evidence, tradeoff, owner, and requested decision visible in a concise workplace artifact. This sequence creates a concise, decision-ready artifact with a clear owner and evidence boundary.
