

Retail and E-Commerce English Dialogue Lab

Realistic field-specific dialogues, role-play variations, and observer checklists

Audience: retail managers, e-commerce teams, merchandising staff, store operations leaders, fulfillment teams, customer service managers, marketplace sellers, and growth operators

Focus: A retail and e-commerce English curriculum for merchandising, pricing, inventory, fulfillment, marketplaces, customer complaints, returns, conversion metrics, promotions, and vendor coordination.

Designed for advanced ESL learners who already use professional English and need industry-specific terminology, realistic meetings, role-play pressure, careful pushback, and polished workplace outputs.

Teaching stance: this is language and workplace-communication training, not legal, medical, financial, safety, or regulatory advice. Instructors should connect every scenario to the learner's current company policies, local rules, and approved procedures.

Dialogue Practice Method

Read each exchange once for meaning, once for tone, and once for decision structure. Then complete the missing language by selecting one of four options and check the rationale at the end.

1. Merchandising and Assortment Planning

Setting

A buyer wants to add many new SKUs before holiday season.

Speaker	Line
Merchant	Approve the assortment expansion.
Category manager	Shelf space, demand signal, margin, inventory risk, and vendor capacity need review.
ESL learner	I understand the goal, but we need to separate urgency from control. For this decision, I need to confirm assortment, SKU, the owner, and the evidence standard before we commit.
Merchant	What would let us move forward without slowing everything down?
ESL learner	Let's document the assumption, define the risk trigger, and create a short assortment decision memo. Then we can decide whether to proceed, escalate, or revise the plan.

Language notes

- The learner names the field-specific control point instead of giving a vague no: assortment, SKU.
- The response preserves the business goal while adding evidence, owner, and next-step discipline.

Three-step decision practice

1. Complete the field language

Choose the term that belongs in this decision point.

Before we act, I need to confirm the _____ and how it affects SKU.

Option	Phrase
A	decision owner
B	SKU
C	assortment
D	operating constraint

2. Choose the strongest professional response

Select the response that preserves the relationship while setting an evidence-based boundary.

A stakeholder says, 'Approve the assortment expansion.' Which response gives a useful, professional form of pushback?

Option	Phrase
A	I understand the urgency. I need to verify assortment and SKU against the stated constraint before I recommend the next step.
B	A assortment decision memo is unnecessary; verbal assurance should be enough.
C	I disagree, but I cannot name the boundary or the decision the group needs to make.
D	evidence threshold

3. Select the next decision move

Choose the action that turns the discussion into a controlled workplace decision.

Given this situation - A buyer wants to add many new SKUs before holiday season. - what should happen next?

Option	Phrase
A	evidence threshold
B	Review the stated constraint with the accountable owner, then prepare the assortment decision memo with the evidence, tradeoff, and requested decision.
C	Send every available detail to senior leaders without identifying the decision they need to make.
D	Wait for the problem to become visible before assigning an owner or evidence source.

Observer checklist

- Did the learner name the decision and the risk?
- Did the learner use at least two industry terms accurately?
- Did the learner give a concrete next step without overpromising?

2. Pricing, Promotions, and Margin

Setting

A promotion drives revenue but margin falls sharply.

Speaker	Line
Pricing analyst	Repeat the promotion because sales increased.
Marketing manager	Gross margin, cannibalization, inventory, customer acquisition, and brand impact matter.
ESL learner	I understand the goal, but we need to separate urgency from control. For this decision, I need to confirm markdown, promotion, the owner, and the evidence standard before we commit.
Pricing analyst	What would let us move forward without slowing everything down?
ESL learner	Let's document the assumption, define the risk trigger, and create a short promotion readout. Then we can decide whether to proceed, escalate, or revise the plan.

Language notes

- The learner names the field-specific control point instead of giving a vague no: markdown, promotion.
- The response preserves the business goal while adding evidence, owner, and next-step discipline.

Three-step decision practice

1. Complete the field language

Choose the term that belongs in this decision point.

Before we act, I need to confirm the _____ and how it affects promotion.

Option	Phrase
A	promotion
B	gross margin
C	markdown

Option	Phrase
D	decision owner

2. Choose the strongest professional response

Select the response that preserves the relationship while setting an evidence-based boundary.

A stakeholder says, 'Repeat the promotion because sales increased.' Which response gives a useful, professional form of pushback?

Option	Phrase
A	I understand the urgency. I need to verify markdown and promotion against the stated constraint before I recommend the next step.
B	I disagree, but I cannot name the boundary or the decision the group needs to make.
C	evidence threshold
D	approval path

3. Select the next decision move

Choose the action that turns the discussion into a controlled workplace decision.

Given this situation - A promotion drives revenue but margin falls sharply. - what should happen next?

Option	Phrase
A	Wait for the problem to become visible before assigning an owner or evidence source.
B	evidence threshold
C	Review the stated constraint with the accountable owner, then prepare the promotion readout with the evidence, tradeoff, and requested decision.
D	Send every available detail to senior leaders without identifying the decision they need to make.

Observer checklist

- Did the learner name the decision and the risk?
- Did the learner use at least two industry terms accurately?
- Did the learner give a concrete next step without overpromising?

3. Inventory, Allocation, and Replenishment

Setting

A hot item is stocked out in stores but overstocked online.

Speaker	Line
Planner	Transfer everything immediately.
Store operations lead	Allocation, demand, lead time, logistics cost, and service level require planning.
ESL learner	I understand the goal, but we need to separate urgency from control. For this decision, I need to confirm allocation, replenishment, the owner, and the evidence standard before we commit.
Planner	What would let us move forward without slowing everything down?
ESL learner	Let's document the assumption, define the risk trigger, and create a short replenishment action plan. Then we can decide whether to proceed, escalate, or revise the plan.

Language notes

- The learner names the field-specific control point instead of giving a vague no: allocation, replenishment.
- The response preserves the business goal while adding evidence, owner, and next-step discipline.

Three-step decision practice

1. Complete the field language

Choose the term that belongs in this decision point.

Before we act, I need to confirm the _____ and how it affects replenishment.

Option	Phrase
A	decision owner
B	allocation
C	approval path
D	operating constraint

2. Choose the strongest professional response

Select the response that preserves the relationship while setting an evidence-based boundary.

A stakeholder says, 'Transfer everything immediately.' Which response gives a useful, professional form of pushback?

Option	Phrase
A	A replenishment action plan is unnecessary; verbal assurance should be enough.
B	I disagree, but I cannot name the boundary or the decision the group needs to make.
C	evidence threshold
D	I understand the urgency. I need to verify allocation and replenishment against the stated constraint before I recommend the next step.

3. Select the next decision move

Choose the action that turns the discussion into a controlled workplace decision.

Given this situation - A hot item is stocked out in stores but overstocked online. - what should happen next?

Option	Phrase
A	Review the stated constraint with the accountable owner, then prepare the replenishment action plan with the evidence, tradeoff, and requested decision.
B	evidence threshold
C	approval path
D	operating constraint

Observer checklist

- Did the learner name the decision and the risk?
- Did the learner use at least two industry terms accurately?
- Did the learner give a concrete next step without overpromising?

4. Fulfillment, Shipping, and Returns

Setting

A warehouse backlog delays guaranteed delivery dates.

Speaker	Line
E-commerce operations lead	Send a general apology.
Customer service manager	Order status, carrier capacity, customer promise, refund policy, and service recovery matter.
ESL learner	I understand the goal, but we need to separate urgency from control. For this decision, I need to confirm fulfillment, SLA, the owner, and the evidence standard before we commit.
E-commerce operations lead	What would let us move forward without slowing everything down?
ESL learner	Let's document the assumption, define the risk trigger, and create a short fulfillment delay script. Then we can decide whether to proceed, escalate, or revise the plan.

Language notes

- The learner names the field-specific control point instead of giving a vague no: fulfillment, SLA.
- The response preserves the business goal while adding evidence, owner, and next-step discipline.

Three-step decision practice

1. Complete the field language

Choose the term that belongs in this decision point.

Before we act, I need to confirm the _____ and how it affects SLA.

Option	Phrase
A	fulfillment
B	return rate
C	carrier
D	evidence threshold

2. Choose the strongest professional response

Select the response that preserves the relationship while setting an evidence-based boundary.

A stakeholder says, 'Send a general apology.' Which response gives a useful, professional form of pushback?

Option	Phrase
A	evidence threshold
B	approval path
C	operating constraint
D	I understand the urgency. I need to verify fulfillment and SLA against the stated constraint before I recommend the next step.

3. Select the next decision move

Choose the action that turns the discussion into a controlled workplace decision.

Given this situation - A warehouse backlog delays guaranteed delivery dates. - what should happen next?

Option	Phrase
A	Wait for the problem to become visible before assigning an owner or evidence source.
B	Review the stated constraint with the accountable owner, then prepare the fulfillment delay script with the evidence, tradeoff, and requested decision.
C	Accept the request immediately because the stakeholder has already expressed urgency.
D	Send every available detail to senior leaders without identifying the decision they need to make.

Observer checklist

- Did the learner name the decision and the risk?
- Did the learner use at least two industry terms accurately?
- Did the learner give a concrete next step without overpromising?

5. Conversion, UX, and Digital Analytics

Setting

Checkout conversion drops after a redesign.

Speaker	Line
E-commerce analyst	Assume customers dislike the new look.
UX lead	Instrumentation, device mix, payment errors, and funnel step drop-off need analysis.
ESL learner	I understand the goal, but we need to separate urgency from control. For this decision, I need to confirm conversion rate, funnel, the owner, and the evidence standard before we commit.
E-commerce analyst	What would let us move forward without slowing everything down?
ESL learner	Let's document the assumption, define the risk trigger, and create a short conversion diagnosis. Then we can decide whether to proceed, escalate, or revise the plan.

Language notes

- The learner names the field-specific control point instead of giving a vague no: conversion rate, funnel.
- The response preserves the business goal while adding evidence, owner, and next-step discipline.

Three-step decision practice

1. Complete the field language

Choose the term that belongs in this decision point.

Before we act, I need to confirm the _____ and how it affects funnel.

Option	Phrase
A	approval path
B	operating constraint
C	conversion rate
D	evidence threshold

2. Choose the strongest professional response

Select the response that preserves the relationship while setting an evidence-based boundary.

A stakeholder says, 'Assume customers dislike the new look.' Which response gives a useful, professional form of pushback?

Option	Phrase
A	We should act now and resolve conversion rate after the result is visible.
B	I understand the urgency. I need to verify conversion rate and funnel against the stated constraint before I recommend the next step.
C	operating constraint
D	decision owner

3. Select the next decision move

Choose the action that turns the discussion into a controlled workplace decision.

Given this situation - Checkout conversion drops after a redesign. - what should happen next?

Option	Phrase
A	approval path
B	Review the stated constraint with the accountable owner, then prepare the conversion diagnosis with the evidence, tradeoff, and requested decision.
C	Wait for the problem to become visible before assigning an owner or evidence source.
D	evidence threshold

Observer checklist

- Did the learner name the decision and the risk?
- Did the learner use at least two industry terms accurately?
- Did the learner give a concrete next step without overpromising?

6. Marketplace and Vendor Management

Setting

A vendor ships late and product ratings fall.

Speaker	Line
Marketplace manager	Threaten to delist them immediately.
Vendor	Scorecards, SLA, customer impact, inventory, and remediation plan need review.
ESL learner	I understand the goal, but we need to separate urgency from control. For this decision, I need to confirm marketplace, vendor scorecard, the owner, and the evidence standard before we commit.
Marketplace manager	What would let us move forward without slowing everything down?
ESL learner	Let's document the assumption, define the risk trigger, and create a short vendor scorecard update. Then we can decide whether to proceed, escalate, or revise the plan.

Language notes

- The learner names the field-specific control point instead of giving a vague no: marketplace, vendor scorecard.
- The response preserves the business goal while adding evidence, owner, and next-step discipline.

Three-step decision practice

1. Complete the field language

Choose the term that belongs in this decision point.

Before we act, I need to confirm the _____ and how it affects vendor scorecard.

Option	Phrase
A	marketplace
B	decision owner
C	vendor scorecard
D	SLA

2. Choose the strongest professional response

Select the response that preserves the relationship while setting an evidence-based boundary.

A stakeholder says, 'Threaten to delist them immediately.' Which response gives a useful, professional form of pushback?

Option	Phrase
A	approval path
B	operating constraint
C	decision owner
D	I understand the urgency. I need to verify marketplace and vendor scorecard against the stated constraint before I recommend the next step.

3. Select the next decision move

Choose the action that turns the discussion into a controlled workplace decision.

Given this situation - A vendor ships late and product ratings fall. - what should happen next?

Option	Phrase
A	decision owner
B	Accept the request immediately because the stakeholder has already expressed urgency.
C	Review the stated constraint with the accountable owner, then prepare the vendor scorecard update with the evidence, tradeoff, and requested decision.
D	operating constraint

Observer checklist

- Did the learner name the decision and the risk?
- Did the learner use at least two industry terms accurately?
- Did the learner give a concrete next step without overpromising?

7. Customer Service and Escalations

Setting

A customer demands a refund outside the return window.

Speaker	Line
Customer service lead	Make an exception for anyone who complains loudly.
Customer	Policy, goodwill, fraud risk, and customer lifetime value need balanced judgment.
ESL learner	I understand the goal, but we need to separate urgency from control. For this decision, I need to confirm return policy, goodwill credit, the owner, and the evidence standard before we commit.
Customer service lead	What would let us move forward without slowing everything down?
ESL learner	Let's document the assumption, define the risk trigger, and create a short escalation response. Then we can decide whether to proceed, escalate, or revise the plan.

Language notes

- The learner names the field-specific control point instead of giving a vague no: return policy, goodwill credit.
- The response preserves the business goal while adding evidence, owner, and next-step discipline.

Three-step decision practice

1. Complete the field language

Choose the term that belongs in this decision point.

Before we act, I need to confirm the _____ and how it affects goodwill credit.

Option	Phrase
A	return policy
B	evidence threshold
C	approval path
D	operating constraint

2. Choose the strongest professional response

Select the response that preserves the relationship while setting an evidence-based boundary.

A stakeholder says, 'Make an exception for anyone who complains loudly.' Which response gives a useful, professional form of pushback?

Option	Phrase
A	I disagree, but I cannot name the boundary or the decision the group needs to make.
B	I understand the urgency. I need to verify return policy and goodwill credit against the stated constraint before I recommend the next step.
C	We should act now and resolve return policy after the result is visible.
D	A escalation response is unnecessary; verbal assurance should be enough.

3. Select the next decision move

Choose the action that turns the discussion into a controlled workplace decision.

Given this situation - A customer demands a refund outside the return window. - what should happen next?

Option	Phrase
A	operating constraint
B	decision owner

Option	Phrase
C	Accept the request immediately because the stakeholder has already expressed urgency.
D	Review the stated constraint with the accountable owner, then prepare the escalation response with the evidence, tradeoff, and requested decision.

Observer checklist

- Did the learner name the decision and the risk?
- Did the learner use at least two industry terms accurately?
- Did the learner give a concrete next step without overpromising?

8. Store Operations and Omnichannel Execution

Setting

Buy-online-pickup-in-store orders are not ready on time.

Speaker	Line
Store manager	Tell stores to prioritize online orders over walk-ins.
Omnichannel lead	Labor, inventory accuracy, queue management, and customer expectations all matter.
ESL learner	I understand the goal, but we need to separate urgency from control. For this decision, I need to confirm BOPIS, inventory accuracy, the owner, and the evidence standard before we commit.
Store manager	What would let us move forward without slowing everything down?
ESL learner	Let's document the assumption, define the risk trigger, and create a short omnichannel operations brief. Then we can decide whether to proceed, escalate, or revise the plan.

Language notes

- The learner names the field-specific control point instead of giving a vague no: BOPIS, inventory accuracy.
- The response preserves the business goal while adding evidence, owner, and next-step discipline.

Three-step decision practice

1. Complete the field language

Choose the term that belongs in this decision point.

Before we act, I need to confirm the _____ and how it affects inventory accuracy.

Option	Phrase
A	evidence threshold
B	approval path
C	operating constraint
D	BOPIS

2. Choose the strongest professional response

Select the response that preserves the relationship while setting an evidence-based boundary.

A stakeholder says, 'Tell stores to prioritize online orders over walk-ins.' Which response gives a useful, professional form of pushback?

Option	Phrase
A	We should act now and resolve BOPIS after the result is visible.
B	A omnichannel operations brief is unnecessary; verbal assurance should be enough.
C	I disagree, but I cannot name the boundary or the decision the group needs to make.
D	I understand the urgency. I need to verify BOPIS and inventory accuracy against the stated constraint before I recommend the next step.

3. Select the next decision move

Choose the action that turns the discussion into a controlled workplace decision.

Given this situation - Buy-online-pickup-in-store orders are not ready on time. - what should happen next?

Option	Phrase
A	evidence threshold
B	approval path
C	operating constraint
D	Review the stated constraint with the accountable owner, then prepare the omnichannel operations brief with the evidence, tradeoff, and requested decision.

Observer checklist

- Did the learner name the decision and the risk?
- Did the learner use at least two industry terms accurately?
- Did the learner give a concrete next step without overpromising?

Answer Key and Rationale

Check each stage after completing the practice sequence. The rationale explains the decision skill the strongest response demonstrates.

Merchandising and Assortment Planning - 1. Complete the field language

Correct answer	Why it fits
C. assortment	'assortment' is the field-specific variable that must be checked before the team can proceed responsibly. This is the decision variable the learner must confirm before the team acts.

Merchandising and Assortment Planning - 2. Choose the strongest professional response

Correct answer	Why it fits
A. I understand the urgency. I need to verify assortment and SKU against the stated constraint before I recommend the next step.	The strongest response names the field terms, the constraint, and the condition for a recommendation without sounding defensive or passive. This response is specific, respectful, and appropriately conditional. It converts pressure into a controlled decision.

Merchandising and Assortment Planning - 3. Select the next decision move

Correct answer	Why it fits
B. Review the stated constraint with the accountable owner, then prepare the assortment decision memo with the evidence, tradeoff, and requested decision.	The best next move makes the evidence, tradeoff, owner, and requested decision visible in a concise workplace artifact. This sequence creates a concise, decision-ready artifact with a clear owner and evidence boundary.

Pricing, Promotions, and Margin - 1. Complete the field language

Correct answer	Why it fits
C. markdown	'markdown' is the field-specific variable that must be checked before the team can proceed responsibly. This is the decision variable the learner must confirm before the team acts.

Pricing, Promotions, and Margin - 2. Choose the strongest professional response

Correct answer	Why it fits
A. I understand the urgency. I need to verify markdown and promotion against the stated constraint before I recommend the next step.	The strongest response names the field terms, the constraint, and the condition for a recommendation without sounding defensive or passive. This response is specific, respectful, and appropriately conditional. It converts pressure into a controlled decision.

Pricing, Promotions, and Margin - 3. Select the next decision move

Correct answer	Why it fits
C. Review the stated constraint with the accountable owner, then prepare the promotion readout with the evidence, tradeoff, and requested decision.	The best next move makes the evidence, tradeoff, owner, and requested decision visible in a concise workplace artifact. This sequence creates a concise, decision-ready artifact with a clear owner and evidence boundary.

Inventory, Allocation, and Replenishment - 1. Complete the field language

Correct answer	Why it fits
B. allocation	'allocation' is the field-specific variable that must be checked before the team can proceed responsibly. This is the decision variable the learner must confirm before the team acts.

Inventory, Allocation, and Replenishment - 2. Choose the strongest professional response

Correct answer	Why it fits
D. I understand the urgency. I need to verify allocation and replenishment against the stated constraint before I recommend the next step.	The strongest response names the field terms, the constraint, and the condition for a recommendation without sounding defensive or passive. This response is specific, respectful, and appropriately conditional. It converts pressure into a controlled decision.

Inventory, Allocation, and Replenishment - 3. Select the next decision move

Correct answer	Why it fits
A. Review the stated constraint with the accountable owner, then prepare the replenishment action plan with the evidence, tradeoff, and requested decision.	The best next move makes the evidence, tradeoff, owner, and requested decision visible in a concise workplace artifact. This sequence creates a concise, decision-ready artifact with a clear owner and evidence boundary.

Fulfillment, Shipping, and Returns - 1. Complete the field language

Correct answer	Why it fits
A. fulfillment	'fulfillment' is the field-specific variable that must be checked before the team can proceed responsibly. This is the decision variable the learner must confirm before the team acts.

Fulfillment, Shipping, and Returns - 2. Choose the strongest professional response

Correct answer	Why it fits
D. I understand the urgency. I need to verify fulfillment and SLA against the stated constraint before I recommend the next step.	The strongest response names the field terms, the constraint, and the condition for a recommendation without sounding defensive or passive. This response is specific, respectful, and appropriately conditional. It converts pressure into a controlled decision.

Fulfillment, Shipping, and Returns - 3. Select the next decision move

Correct answer	Why it fits
B. Review the stated constraint with the accountable owner, then prepare the fulfillment delay script with the evidence, tradeoff, and requested decision.	The best next move makes the evidence, tradeoff, owner, and requested decision visible in a concise workplace artifact. This sequence creates a concise, decision-ready artifact with a clear owner and evidence boundary.

Conversion, UX, and Digital Analytics - 1. Complete the field language

Correct answer	Why it fits
C. conversion rate	'conversion rate' is the field-specific variable that must be checked before the team can proceed responsibly. This is the decision variable the learner must confirm before the team acts.

Conversion, UX, and Digital Analytics - 2. Choose the strongest professional response

Correct answer	Why it fits
B. I understand the urgency. I need to verify conversion rate and funnel against the stated constraint before I recommend the next step.	The strongest response names the field terms, the constraint, and the condition for a recommendation without sounding defensive or passive. This response is specific, respectful, and appropriately conditional. It converts pressure into a controlled decision.

Conversion, UX, and Digital Analytics - 3. Select the next decision move

Correct answer	Why it fits
B. Review the stated constraint with the accountable owner, then prepare the conversion diagnosis with the evidence, tradeoff, and requested decision.	The best next move makes the evidence, tradeoff, owner, and requested decision visible in a concise workplace artifact. This sequence creates a concise, decision-ready artifact with a clear owner and evidence boundary.

Marketplace and Vendor Management - 1. Complete the field language

Correct answer	Why it fits
A. marketplace	'marketplace' is the field-specific variable that must be checked before the team can proceed responsibly. This is the decision variable the learner must confirm before the team acts.

Marketplace and Vendor Management - 2. Choose the strongest professional response

Correct answer	Why it fits
D. I understand the urgency. I need to verify marketplace and vendor scorecard against the stated constraint before I recommend the next step.	The strongest response names the field terms, the constraint, and the condition for a recommendation without sounding defensive or passive. This response is specific, respectful, and appropriately conditional. It converts pressure into a controlled decision.

Marketplace and Vendor Management - 3. Select the next decision move

Correct answer	Why it fits
C. Review the stated constraint with the accountable owner, then prepare the vendor scorecard update with the evidence, tradeoff, and requested decision.	The best next move makes the evidence, tradeoff, owner, and requested decision visible in a concise workplace artifact. This sequence creates a concise, decision-ready artifact with a clear owner and evidence boundary.

Customer Service and Escalations - 1. Complete the field language

Correct answer	Why it fits
A. return policy	'return policy' is the field-specific variable that must be checked before the team can proceed responsibly. This is the decision variable the learner must confirm before the team acts.

Customer Service and Escalations - 2. Choose the strongest professional response

Correct answer	Why it fits
B. I understand the urgency. I need to verify return policy and goodwill credit against the stated constraint before I recommend the next step.	The strongest response names the field terms, the constraint, and the condition for a recommendation without sounding defensive or passive. This response is specific, respectful, and appropriately conditional. It converts pressure into a controlled decision.

Customer Service and Escalations - 3. Select the next decision move

Correct answer	Why it fits
D. Review the stated constraint with the accountable owner, then prepare the escalation response with the evidence, tradeoff, and requested decision.	The best next move makes the evidence, tradeoff, owner, and requested decision visible in a concise workplace artifact. This sequence creates a concise, decision-ready artifact with a clear owner and evidence boundary.

Store Operations and Omnichannel Execution - 1. Complete the field language

Correct answer	Why it fits
D. BOPIS	'BOPIS' is the field-specific variable that must be checked before the team can proceed responsibly. This is the decision variable the learner must confirm before the team acts.

Store Operations and Omnichannel Execution - 2. Choose the strongest professional response

Correct answer	Why it fits
D. I understand the urgency. I need to verify BOPIS and inventory accuracy against the stated constraint before I recommend the next step.	The strongest response names the field terms, the constraint, and the condition for a recommendation without sounding defensive or passive. This response is specific, respectful, and appropriately conditional. It converts pressure into a controlled decision.

Store Operations and Omnichannel Execution - 3. Select the next decision move

Correct answer	Why it fits
D. Review the stated constraint with the accountable owner, then prepare the omnichannel operations brief with the evidence, tradeoff, and requested decision.	The best next move makes the evidence, tradeoff, owner, and requested decision visible in a concise workplace artifact. This sequence creates a concise, decision-ready artifact with a clear owner and evidence boundary.
