ENGLISH LADDER

Concept #07 ▶ Let's talk about about!

Some verbs carry the meaning of a simple short action such as talk, walk, and think. If we want to show these actions were longer actions, we add about.

(Short) The baby talked! He said "Mama"!

(Long) The professor talked about the French economy.

(Short) The baby walked! She took two steps!

(Long) I walked about Tokyo and enjoyed the many sights.

(Short) I think Tom is 30. That must be his age.

(Long) I'm thinking about buying a house. It is so complicated!

However, for many verbs the idea of "long" is built into the verb, so we don't need the word about. For example, we never say "We were discussing about it." Instead we say "We were discussing it." It is assumed that a discussion takes a long time.

Don't use about after these verbs ▶

- discuss • describe • remember • imagine
- consider • ponder • decide
- explain • criticize • realize
- report • announce • notice

Guided practice	Project two or three examples from the concept sheet and ask pairs to explain why each choice works, not just what the answer is.

Closure	Ask students to create one new sentence or mini-example of their own that follows the same pattern.

Likely Learner Errors

- Learners may overgeneralize the first pattern they notice. Keep returning to Key Points and ask students to explain what changes from one example to the next.
- Long explanations can hide the signal word or structure. Have students underline the exact phrase that tells them which form, pattern, or response is needed.
- If students can choose an answer but cannot explain it, ask them to justify their choice using words taken directly from the concept sheet.

Differentiation and Delivery Notes

- Support: teach one section at a time, then send students back to the examples or the practice set so they can apply the same rule immediately.
- Pair work: let students compare answers aloud before you reveal the key. The explanation step is as important as the final answer.
- Extension: ask stronger students to write two fresh examples or a short dialogue that uses the same target language accurately.

Model Language from the Concept Sheet
