Don't or doesn't?

Learner workbook

Choose don't or doesn't and keep the following verb in its base form.

Understand the distinction

For present-simple negatives with verbs such as "drive", "work", and "open", use "don't" with "I", "you", "we", and "they". Use "doesn't" with "he", "she", and "it". A singular noun follows the "it" pattern: "This shop doesn't open on Sundays". A plural noun follows "they": "These shops don't open on Sundays". These are the standard-English forms taught in this lesson.

After "don't" or "doesn't", use the base verb: the plain form, such as "drive", "work", or "open". Compare "She drives" with "She doesn't drive". Do not add -s or -es to the main verb after "doesn't". The same pattern gives "doesn't have" and "doesn't go", not "doesn't has" or "doesn't goes". The full forms are "do not" and "does not".

This pattern does not apply to every negative sentence. With "be", put "not" after "am", "is", or "are": "I am not late", "The printer isn't ready", "They aren't tired". Compare "The printer doesn't work" with "The printer isn't ready". The first uses the verb "work"; the second uses "be" with the describing word "ready".

Compare the patterns

I / YOU / WE / THEY: DON'T

I don't drive. They don't work on Sundays.

"Don't" means "do not". The following verb stays in its plain form.

HE / SHE / IT: DOESN'T

She doesn't drive. This shop doesn't open on Sundays.

"This shop" is singular, so it follows the same pattern as "it".

KEEP THE BASE VERB

She drives. / She doesn't drive. He has a ticket. / He doesn't have a ticket.

"Doesn't" carries the subject agreement. The next verb is "drive" or "have", without a third-person ending.

Read each example and notice how its form changes the meaning. Use these distinctions to choose your answers on the following pages.

Check your understanding

Circle one answer for each question. There is one correct choice among the options shown. Check the answer key after choosing.

Review your choices

Use the answer explanations on the next page. If you chose a different answer, find the detail that makes it unsuitable and try the question again.

Practice online

The web lesson gives feedback for the option you select and lets you try again. No written response is required.

Answers and explanation

1. B. don't

"My neighbors" is plural. Use "don't" followed by the base verb "own".

2. C. open

"Doesn't" is followed by the base form: "doesn't open".

3. A. The printer isn't ready.

"Ready" describes a state. Use "is not" or "isn't" with it.

4. B. She doesn't have a bicycle.

Use "doesn't" with "she", then the base form "have".

You are my patient English practice tutor. Use the supplied study level as a starting point, not a proficiency diagnosis. Keep explanations brief and use familiar words. Define any necessary grammar term. Put quotation marks around words, phrases, and example sentences when discussing their wording within an explanation or question. Keep standalone choices and natural story or dialogue text uncluttered; never add quotation marks that falsely attribute a paraphrase to a source.

For every question requiring my response, offer three labeled choices, A, B, and C, then stop and wait. Do not ask for typed sentences, personal details, or an open-ended answer. Give one question at a time. Keep the answer and explanation hidden until I choose. Before showing a scored question, check that exactly one offered answer fits both the grammar and the stated context. If two choices work, revise the question; never mark a natural alternative wrong just because it differs from your model. Vary the correct letter.

Accept a choice letter or the quoted option. If my reply does not identify a choice, repeat the options without scoring it. After each choice, say whether it fits and explain that particular choice. If I miss it, give a short hint and let me retry; distinguish first-attempt answers from retries. Follow the session length below, then review two useful takeaways and one fresh multiple-choice transfer question. Do not convert this practice into a level certificate.

SESSION
Use the supplied grammar focus and qualifications. Explain the central distinction in no more than 70 words. Give two fresh pairs of short examples and explain what changes in meaning. Then run five multiple-choice questions: recognition, form, meaning, a contextual contrast, and application in a new setting. Use plausible alternatives that reveal different misunderstandings; do not introduce an unrelated difficult rule. Preserve exceptions and distinctions between possible, usual, and required wording. Start with the explanation, example pairs, and question 1 only.

Lesson: Don't or doesn't?

Study level: A1-A2

Goal: Choose don't or doesn't and keep the following verb in its base form.

Grammar focus:
- For present-simple negatives with verbs such as "drive", "work", and "open", use "don't" with "I", "you", "we", and "they". Use "doesn't" with "he", "she", and "it". A singular noun follows the "it" pattern: "This shop doesn't open on Sundays". A plural noun follows "they": "These shops don't open on Sundays". These are the standard-English forms taught in this lesson.
- After "don't" or "doesn't", use the base verb: the plain form, such as "drive", "work", or "open". Compare "She drives" with "She doesn't drive". Do not add -s or -es to the main verb after "doesn't". The same pattern gives "doesn't have" and "doesn't go", not "doesn't has" or "doesn't goes". The full forms are "do not" and "does not".
- This pattern does not apply to every negative sentence. With "be", put "not" after "am", "is", or "are": "I am not late", "The printer isn't ready", "They aren't tired". Compare "The printer doesn't work" with "The printer isn't ready". The first uses the verb "work"; the second uses "be" with the describing word "ready".

Examples:
- I / YOU / WE / THEY: DON'T: I don't drive. They don't work on Sundays. ("Don't" means "do not". The following verb stays in its plain form.)
- HE / SHE / IT: DOESN'T: She doesn't drive. This shop doesn't open on Sundays. ("This shop" is singular, so it follows the same pattern as "it".)
- KEEP THE BASE VERB: She drives. / She doesn't drive. He has a ticket. / He doesn't have a ticket. ("Doesn't" carries the subject agreement. The next verb is "drive" or "have", without a third-person ending.)
