

Where to put only

Learner workbook

Make clear what you are limiting.

Understand the distinction

Only limits a person, thing, action, amount, or time. Put it close to the element you want to limit when clarity matters: Only Jo called means nobody else called; Jo called only Sam means Sam was the only recipient.

In speech, stress and context also shape the meaning. I only bought two can be understood naturally even if only is not immediately before two. Do not assume every everyday placement is wrong; revise when a reader could misunderstand.

Compare the patterns

PERSON

Only Jo called Sam.

Nobody other than Jo called Sam.

RECIPIENT

Jo called only Sam.

Jo called no one except Sam.

ACTION

Jo only called; she did not visit.

The action was limited to a call.

Read each example and notice how its form changes the meaning. Use these distinctions to choose your answers on the following pages.
