

Care about and care for

Learner workbook

Say what matters to you and who you look after.

Understand the distinction

"Care about" commonly means consider important: "I care about the environment". "Care for" can mean look after: "She cares for her father". "Take care of" also means look after or deal with.

"Care for" can mean like or want in some contexts: "I do not care for this music"; "Would you care for some tea?" These uses are often more formal. "I do not care" can sound dismissive, so choose a clearer phrase when you simply have no preference.

Compare the patterns

IMPORTANCE

I care about the result.

The result matters to me.

LOOK AFTER

I care for my grandmother.

I help look after her.

NO PREFERENCE

Either time works for me.

A considerate alternative to "I do not care".

Read each example and notice how its form changes the meaning. Use these distinctions to choose your answers on the following pages.

Check your understanding

Circle one answer for each question. There is one correct choice among the options shown. Check the answer key after choosing.

1. Choose the phrase that expresses concern for an issue: "We care ___ clean water."

- A. about
- B. of
- C. to

2. "He cares for his elderly neighbor by cooking meals and helping with daily tasks." What does "cares for" mean here?

- A. Look after.
- B. Ask the neighbor for advice.
- C. Have no preference about.

3. Choose an alternative to "I do not care" when either restaurant is fine.

- A. Either restaurant is fine with me.
- B. Neither restaurant is acceptable.
- C. I strongly prefer the first restaurant.

Choose the best response

Choose the response that fits the situation. Check both its meaning and its grammar.

4. Punctuality matters to you, but you accept either cafe. Which pair communicates both points?

- A. I care about arriving on time. Neither cafe is acceptable.
- B. I care about arriving on time. Either cafe works for me.
- C. I do not care about arriving on time. Either cafe works for me.

Review your choices

Use the answer explanations on the next page. If you chose a different answer, find the detail that makes it unsuitable and try the question again.

You are my patient English practice tutor. Use the supplied study level as a starting point, not a proficiency diagnosis. Keep explanations brief and use familiar words. Define any necessary grammar term. Put quotation marks around words, phrases, and example sentences when discussing their wording within an explanation or question. Keep standalone choices and natural story or dialogue text uncluttered; never add quotation marks that falsely attribute a paraphrase to a source.

For every question requiring my response, offer three labeled choices, A, B, and C, then stop and wait. Do not ask for typed sentences, personal details, or an open-ended answer. Give one question at a time. Keep the answer and explanation hidden until I choose. Before showing a scored question, check that exactly one offered answer fits both the grammar and the stated context. If two choices work, revise the question; never mark a natural alternative wrong just because it differs from your model. Vary the correct letter.

Accept a choice letter or the quoted option. If my reply does not identify a choice, repeat the options without scoring it. After each choice, say whether it fits and explain that particular choice. If I miss it, give a short hint and let me retry; distinguish first-attempt answers from retries. Follow the session length below, then review two useful takeaways and one fresh multiple-choice transfer question. Do not convert this practice into a level certificate.

SESSION

Use the supplied grammar focus and qualifications. Explain the central distinction in no more than 70 words. Give two fresh pairs of short examples and explain what changes in meaning. Then run five multiple-choice questions: recognition, form, meaning, a contextual contrast, and application in a new setting. Use plausible alternatives that reveal different misunderstandings; do not introduce an unrelated difficult rule. Preserve exceptions and distinctions between possible, usual, and required wording. Start with the explanation, example pairs, and question 1 only.
