Concept #10 ► Adjective Order

Multiple adjectives assigned to a single noun follow the general order below. This reflects only the common ordering. There is some flexibility.

Determiner	Opinion	Size	Shape	Condition	Age	Color	Pattern	Origin	Material	Purpose	Noun
The	awful	small	round	broken	young	black	spotted	British	wooden	shopping	car
Eleven	beautiful	large	square	hungry	new	reddish	striped	Japanese	plastic	safety	class
My	nice	tiny	long	messy	old	yellow	plain	Mayan	gold	business	device

However, there is much flexibility in the order, especially for the categories in the middle. The best way to learn adjective order is to simply do much reading in English. The adjective order will eventually become natural to you.

I have two odd, large, roundish, shiny, new, black & white, checked, French, leather, clown shoes.

* Note that commas are used between unrelated adjectives. The leather is not French leather, and the clowns are not leather clowns.

Core Idea

Understanding the order of adjectives is essential for non-native English speakers to construct grammatically correct sentences. The image outlines a general order that adjectives follow when describing a noun. While there is some flexibility, especially in the middle categories, adhering to this order can make your sentences sound more natural.

Quick reference

The General Order of Adjectives	Determiner
Detailed Explanation with Examples	Determiner Words like the, a, an, my, this, that, these, those, some, every, each. Examples: The car My house An apple
Combining Multiple Adjectives	Two (determiner)

Key Points

The General Order of Adjectives

- Determiner
- Opinion
- Size
- Shape
- Condition
- Age
- Color
- Pattern
- Origin
- Material
- Purpose
- The Noun

Detailed Explanation with Examples

- Determiner Words like the, a, an, my, this, that, these, those, some, every, each. Examples: The car My house An apple

- Opinion Words that express what you think about something, such as beautiful, nice, awful, amazing, ugly. Examples: A beautiful day An awful smell A nice gift
- Size Words describing the size, such as small, large, tiny, huge. Examples: A large room A tiny insect A small box
- Shape Words describing the shape, such as round, square, rectangular, oval. Examples: A round table A square garden A rectangular frame
- Condition Words describing the state or condition, such as broken, messy, clean, hungry, tired. Examples: A broken chair A messy desk A clean window
- Age Words describing age, such as young, old, new, ancient. Examples: An old tree A young boy A new car
- Color Words describing color, such as red, blue, green, yellow, black. Examples: A red apple A blue sky A green leaf
- Pattern Words describing patterns, such as striped, spotted, checked, plain. Examples: A striped shirt A spotted dress A checked tablecloth

- Material Words describing the material, such as wooden, plastic, metal, cotton. Examples: A wooden chair A plastic bottle A metal gate
- Purpose Words describing the purpose, such as shopping, cleaning, cooking. Examples: A shopping bag A cleaning brush A cooking pot
- Noun The main noun that you are describing. Examples: The big, round, yellow ball A beautiful, old, wooden table My new, red, Japanese car

Combining Multiple Adjectives

When using multiple adjectives to describe a single noun, follow the order mentioned above.

Example Sentence:

"I have two odd, large, roundish, shiny, new, black and white, checked, French, leather, clown shoes."

- Two (determiner)
- Odd (opinion)
- Large (size)
- Roundish (shape)
- Shiny (condition)
- New (age)
- Black and white (color)
- Checked (pattern)
- French (origin)

- Leather (material)
- Clown (purpose)
- Shoes (noun)

Note on Flexibility

While the general order is a useful guide, there is some flexibility, especially with the middle categories. The best way to master adjective order is to read extensively in English. Over time, the correct order will start to feel more natural.
