ENGLISH LADDER

Concept #23 ► All | Each | Every | None

Sentences in blue refer to all the books in the world.
Underlined words reflect irregular styles.

"Each" emphasizes the uniqueness of each book.

"Every" or "every one of" emphasizes the fact that the entire group of books is interesting.

Note that we use either 2 words (all books) or 4 words (all of the books). We never use 3 words as in "all of books".

"Either" suggests there is a future choice or action.

All of the books are interesting.
All books are interesting.

Most of the books are interesting.
Most books are interesting.

Each of the books is interesting in its own way.
Each book is interesting in its own way.

Every one of the books is interesting.
Every book is interesting.

Both of the books are interesting.
Both books are interesting.

Neither (one) of the books is/are interesting.
Neither book is interesting.

Either (one) of the books will be interesting.
Either book will be interesting.

None of the books are interesting.
No books are interesting.

Core objective Students explain the target pattern clearly and apply it accurately in controlled practice and discussion.	Materials Student PDF, the concept image, board space, and time for partner checking.

Suggested Lesson Flow

Warm-up	Display the concept image and ask learners to predict the rule behind Concept #23: All Each Every None before reading the explanation.
Model	Walk through the Core Idea and the sections on Key Points, Additional Notes, Summary. Pause after each part so students can restate the pattern in plain English.
Guided practice	Project two or three examples from the concept sheet and ask pairs to explain why each choice works, not just what the answer is.
Independent work	Assign the 24 practice items for quiet work, partner checking, and final feedback.
Closure	Ask students to create one new sentence or mini-example of their own that follows the same pattern.

Likely Learner Errors

- Learners may overgeneralize the first pattern they notice. Keep returning to Key Points, Additional Notes, Summary and ask students to explain what changes from one example to the next.
- Long explanations can hide the signal word or structure. Have students underline the exact phrase that tells them which form, pattern, or response is needed.
- If students can choose an answer but cannot explain it, ask them to justify their choice using words taken directly from the concept sheet.

Differentiation and Delivery Notes

- Support: teach one section at a time, then send students back to the examples or the practice set so they can apply the same rule immediately.
- Pair work: let students compare answers aloud before you reveal the key. The explanation step is as important as the final answer.
- Extension: ask stronger students to write two fresh examples or a short dialogue that uses the same target language accurately.

Model Language from the Concept Sheet

- All of the books are interesting. This means every single book in the group is interesting.
- All books are interesting. This is a more general statement, indicating that books, in general, are interesting.
- All of the students passed the exam.
- All movies directed by him are fantastic.
- She read all the articles on the website.
- Each of the books is interesting in its own way. This means every book, individually, is interesting and has its unique qualities.

Feedback Cues

- Item 01: Explanation: This sentence correctly uses "all of" to refer to the entire group of students. The other option uses incorrect grammar.
- Item 02: Explanation: "Each" emphasizes the individuality of team members, correctly followed by a singular verb "has". The other option uses an incorrect verb form.
- Item 03: Explanation: "Every" is used to refer to all students collectively, with a singular verb "must wear". The other option uses an incorrect plural form.
- Item 04: Explanation: "Both" correctly refers to the two twins together, followed by a plural verb "are". The other option uses an incorrect verb form.
- Item 05: Explanation: "Neither" correctly indicates that not one of the two options is acceptable, followed by a singular verb "is". The other option uses an incorrect verb form.
- Item 06: Explanation: "Either" indicates a choice between two options. The other option uses an incorrect conjunction "nor".
