

ENGLISH FOR WORK / SEPTEMBER 2026

Banking Operations English

Conversation lab

8 complete workplace dialogues, followed by eight additional role-play cases. Study the exchanges, then make the conversation your own.

PRACTICE THAT TRANSFERS TO WORK

Read a realistic case. Find the right language. Speak, write, get feedback, and try again.

Eight lessons | Intermediate to advanced | Independent or classroom study

For bank operations staff, branch managers, loan operations teams, KYC/AML analysts, fraud operations staff, payment operations teams, compliance staff, and banking leaders.

Fictional language practice. Legal, financial, and regulatory meanings depend on jurisdiction and context; use current documents and qualified review for actual decisions.

All scenarios, figures, and model responses are fictional teaching material. Use invented details in practice.

Inside this conversation lab

Original fictional training conversations in professional English. These are realistic scripts, not transcripts of actual people. The professional roles are the speaker labels; all figures, incidents, and organizations are invented.

01 Account-opening discrepancy

02 Monitoring alert review

03 Loan documentation gap

04 Payment exception

05 A fraud-related customer call

06 Control reconciliation

07 Exam evidence request

08 Fair complaint handling

Then try eight independent role-play cases, followed by feedback criteria and references.

Read it. Hear it. Make it yours.

1. Read the setting. Identify the roles, the immediate problem, and what each speaker needs.
2. Read the whole conversation aloud with a partner. In a group, give a third person the observer role. For three-speaker scripts, assign each professional a separate voice.
3. Notice how the speakers ask a specific question, qualify a claim, disagree, explain a technical point, or agree on a next step. Underline language you would actually use.
4. Cover the script. Recreate the exchange using the situation and professional roles. Keep the meaning, but change the wording.
5. Switch roles and introduce a complication: a missing record, a different priority, an unavailable colleague, or a changed assumption. End with a clear outcome or unresolved question.

Register and terminology

These colleagues use concise professional language. In an internal technical meeting, familiar abbreviations can be natural. With a new colleague or a client, expand unfamiliar terms and check understanding. Keep disagreement directed at the evidence or proposal, and match the degree of certainty to what is known.

Independent study

Speak each role aloud. Pause before the reply and supply your own response before revealing the next line. Record a second version using invented details, then compare its clarity and tone with the script.

Professional context

Fictional language practice. Legal, financial, and regulatory meanings depend on jurisdiction and context; use current documents and qualified review for actual decisions.

FULL DIALOGUE 01 / 6 SPEAKING TURNS

Account-opening discrepancy

Bank staff reconcile identity information.

Roles: Account-opening analyst / Branch manager

Account-opening analyst: The application address differs from the identity document. The required verification is incomplete.

Branch manager: Follow our customer-identification process and ask for the appropriate clarification or documentation.

Account-opening analyst: The customer wants the account opened immediately because they're traveling.

Branch manager: Explain the outstanding requirement clearly. Don't bypass it or promise approval before review.

Account-opening analyst: I'll record the discrepancy and the requested next step through the approved system.

Branch manager: I'll support the escalation if the circumstances require specialist review under the bank's process.

Notice the professional language

Discuss this wording: "The application address differs from the identity document. The required verification is incomplete." What does it help the other professional clarify?

Rehearse and extend with AI

Explain the issue and the agreed next step without reading. Identify any point still awaiting evidence, agreement, or approval. Then replay the exchange with a changed constraint and a new ending.

Observer: note one natural professional expression and one place where the follow-up made the meaning clearer.

FULL DIALOGUE 02 / 6 SPEAKING TURNS

Monitoring alert review

Analysts discuss an unusual activity alert.

Roles: AML analyst / Review supervisor

AML analyst: The alert shows activity outside the account's expected pattern, but that doesn't establish wrongdoing.

Review supervisor: Review the relevant customer information and transaction context under our monitoring procedures.

AML analyst: I'll document what is known, what differs, and what evidence is missing.

Review supervisor: Keep speculation separate from the factual analysis and use the designated escalation channel.

AML analyst: I'll submit the case for the required review without discussing internal reporting decisions externally.

Review supervisor: I'll assess the documented work and confirm the appropriate next steps under our process.

Notice the professional language

Discuss this wording: "The alert shows activity outside the account's expected pattern, but that doesn't establish wrongdoing." What does it help the other professional clarify?

Rehearse and extend with AI

Explain the issue and the agreed next step without reading. Identify any point still awaiting evidence, agreement, or approval. Then replay the exchange with a changed constraint and a new ending.

Observer: note one natural professional expression and one place where the follow-up made the meaning clearer.

FULL DIALOGUE 03 / 6 SPEAKING TURNS

Loan documentation gap

Loan operations checks a file before processing.

Roles: Loan operations specialist / Credit officer

Loan operations specialist: The approval record is present, but a required signed document is missing from the file.

Credit officer: Check whether the current approval includes any conditions that remain outstanding.

Loan operations specialist: It does. Should I treat the approval itself as permission to proceed?

Credit officer: No. Confirm the conditions through the authorized process before taking the next operational step.

Loan operations specialist: I'll list the missing item and route the request to the responsible team.

Credit officer: I'll clarify the approval conditions and document any further authorized decision.

Notice the professional language

Discuss this wording: "It does. Should I treat the approval itself as permission to proceed?" What does it help the other professional clarify?

Rehearse and extend with AI

Explain the issue and the agreed next step without reading. Identify any point still awaiting evidence, agreement, or approval. Then replay the exchange with a changed constraint and a new ending.

Observer: note one natural professional expression and one place where the follow-up made the meaning clearer.

FULL DIALOGUE 04 / 6 SPEAKING TURNS

Payment exception

Operations investigates a payment with inconsistent details.

Roles: Payments analyst / Operations supervisor

Payments analyst: The beneficiary name and the supporting instruction don't match. The payment is in the exception queue.

Operations supervisor: Preserve the instruction and follow the approved verification route before making any change.

Payments analyst: The requester sent a new bank detail by email and says it's urgent.

Operations supervisor: Urgency doesn't verify the change. Use the bank's independent confirmation process.

Payments analyst: I'll record the discrepancy and the steps taken without exposing account details in the team chat.

Operations supervisor: I'll review the exception and ensure the authorized outcome is recorded before processing continues.

Notice the professional language

exception queue - A list of items requiring review because normal processing could not complete them.

Rehearse and extend with AI

Explain the issue and the agreed next step without reading. Identify any point still awaiting evidence, agreement, or approval. Then replay the exchange with a changed constraint and a new ending.

Observer: note one natural professional expression and one place where the follow-up made the meaning clearer.

FULL DIALOGUE 05 / 6 SPEAKING TURNS

A fraud-related customer call

A branch employee consults the fraud team.

Roles: Branch adviser / Fraud operations specialist

Branch adviser: A customer reports a transfer they say they didn't authorize. What should I record?

Fraud operations specialist: The reported facts, transaction reference, and contact details through the approved intake process.

Branch adviser: They're asking whether we can guarantee recovery.

Fraud operations specialist: Don't guarantee an outcome. Explain the immediate reporting and review steps accurately and follow the escalation procedure.

Branch adviser: I'll connect the customer through the designated channel and document the handoff.

Fraud operations specialist: I'll confirm receipt and coordinate the case under our fraud-response process.

Notice the professional language

Discuss this wording: "A customer reports a transfer they say they didn't authorize. What should I record?" What does it help the other professional clarify?

Rehearse and extend with AI

Explain the issue and the agreed next step without reading. Identify any point still awaiting evidence, agreement, or approval. Then replay the exchange with a changed constraint and a new ending.

Observer: note one natural professional expression and one place where the follow-up made the meaning clearer.

FULL DIALOGUE 06 / 6 SPEAKING TURNS

Control reconciliation

An operations team finds an unexplained difference.

Roles: Reconciliation analyst / Control manager

Reconciliation analyst: The settlement total differs from the ledger by $8,500. I haven't identified the cause.

Control manager: Keep the exception visible. Which batches and timestamps have you compared?

Reconciliation analyst: Today's batches. One posting may have crossed the reporting cutoff, but that remains a hypothesis.

Control manager: Check the source references and subsequent postings before proposing an adjustment.

Reconciliation analyst: I'll document the investigation and retain the original reconciliation.

Control manager: Route any adjustment through the approval process with the supporting evidence and reason clearly stated.

Notice the professional language

Discuss this wording: "Keep the exception visible. Which batches and timestamps have you compared?" What does it help the other professional clarify?

Rehearse and extend with AI

Explain the issue and the agreed next step without reading. Identify any point still awaiting evidence, agreement, or approval. Then replay the exchange with a changed constraint and a new ending.

Observer: note one natural professional expression and one place where the follow-up made the meaning clearer.

FULL DIALOGUE 07 / 6 SPEAKING TURNS

Exam evidence request

Bank staff prepare materials for a regulatory examination.

Roles: Exam coordinator / Control owner

Exam coordinator: The request asks for evidence of control operation during the quarter, not just the current procedure.

Control owner: I'll provide dated review records, exceptions, approvals, and follow-up evidence through the approved channel.

Exam coordinator: Flag missing records rather than recreating them as if they existed at the time.

Control owner: Understood. I'll distinguish verified evidence from unresolved gaps.

Exam coordinator: I'll track the request, responsible owner, and response status.

Control owner: I'll review the package for accuracy and permitted disclosure before submission.

Notice the professional language

Discuss this wording: "The request asks for evidence of control operation during the quarter, not just the current procedure." What does it help the other professional clarify?

Rehearse and extend with AI

Explain the issue and the agreed next step without reading. Identify any point still awaiting evidence, agreement, or approval. Then replay the exchange with a changed constraint and a new ending.

Observer: note one natural professional expression and one place where the follow-up made the meaning clearer.

FULL DIALOGUE 08 / 6 SPEAKING TURNS

Fair complaint handling

A team reviews a service complaint involving fees.

Roles: Complaints specialist / Branch manager

Complaints specialist: The customer says the fee was never explained. What records show the disclosure and the actual charge?

Branch manager: I'll retrieve the account terms, relevant communication, and transaction history.

Complaints specialist: We should consider their specific concern rather than assume the standard letter answers it.

Branch manager: Agreed. I'll also check whether staff provided inconsistent information.

Complaints specialist: I'll explain the review process and current status without promising an unapproved refund.

Branch manager: We'll document the findings and any authorized remedy through the complaint process.

Notice the professional language

Discuss this wording: "The customer says the fee was never explained. What records show the disclosure and the actual charge?" What does it help the other professional clarify?

Rehearse and extend with AI

Explain the issue and the agreed next step without reading. Identify any point still awaiting evidence, agreement, or approval. Then replay the exchange with a changed constraint and a new ending.

Observer: note one natural professional expression and one place where the follow-up made the meaning clearer.

Eight more situations to make your own

The following cases are open role plays. They give you facts, contrasting roles, useful expressions, and a short model response. Use what you learned from the complete dialogues to create a longer exchange.

Preparation: two minutes. Conversation: three to five minutes. Feedback: one minute. Switch roles and repeat with the second-round challenge.

ROLE-PLAY CASE 01

Account Opening and KYC

SHARED CASE

An account application lacks requested ownership information. The applicant asks staff to open the account before the review is complete.

Role A | Responding professional

Make a request with a clear action, purpose, and realistic timing. Use only the facts given. Choose two relevant terms and be ready to explain one of them in ordinary words.

Role B | Listener

You can help but need a clear request and its purpose. Ask what is required and whether the timing is fixed or negotiable.

Useful expressions

Could you provide ... so that ...?

Please confirm ... by [agreed time].

If that timing is not possible, please let me know ...

Cover this until after your first attempt

Could you provide the outstanding ownership information through the approved channel? I can explain what is missing, but the application still needs to follow the bank's review process.

Second round

The other person cannot meet the requested timing. Clarify an alternative without inventing authority to change a formal deadline.

Debrief and extend with AI

Which phrase helped the listener? Which case fact needed clarification? Write one better follow-up question, then repeat the exchange.

ROLE-PLAY CASE 02

AML Monitoring and Suspicious Activity

SHARED CASE

A monitoring alert identifies unusual transactions. The analyst has not determined their explanation. The internal note must remain neutral.

Role A | Responding professional

Separate observations, assumptions, and conclusions. Use only the facts given. Choose two relevant terms and be ready to explain one of them in ordinary words.

Role B | Listener

You need to tell a colleague what is known. Ask which part is confirmed and which part is an assumption. Challenge one statement that sounds more certain than the case supports.

Useful expressions

The available evidence shows

This may indicate ..., but

We have not yet established whether

Cover this until after your first attempt

The transactions differ from the expected pattern and require review. That is an observation, not a conclusion about intent. I'll document the relevant facts through the approved confidential process.

Second round

Someone asks for a yes-or-no answer when the evidence supports only a qualified answer. Be concise while preserving the uncertainty.

Debrief and extend with AI

Which phrase helped the listener? Which case fact needed clarification? Write one better follow-up question, then repeat the exchange.

ROLE-PLAY CASE 03

Loan Operations and Documentation

SHARED CASE

A loan operations checklist marks a condition complete, but the supporting document refers to a different version of the agreement.

Role A | Responding professional

Clarify missing information before responding. Use only the facts given. Choose two relevant terms and be ready to explain one of them in ordinary words.

Role B | Listener

You need to know exactly what information is missing. Give one answer only after your partner asks a focused question; then ask them to confirm their understanding.

Useful expressions

When you say ..., do you mean ...?

Could you clarify which ...?

So, my understanding is Is that right?

Cover this until after your first attempt

Which agreement version governs this condition? Let's confirm the reference and required evidence before recording the item as complete in the operations checklist.

Second round

The other person uses an ambiguous word such as 'ready', 'approved', or 'urgent'. Clarify it before continuing.

Debrief and extend with AI

Which phrase helped the listener? Which case fact needed clarification? Write one better follow-up question, then repeat the exchange.

ROLE-PLAY CASE 04

Payment Operations and Exceptions

SHARED CASE

A payments queue has 45 exceptions, with 30 reviewed and 15 pending. A manager asks whether all items have been resolved.

Role A | Responding professional

Distinguish completed work from pending work and explain its impact. Use only the facts given. Choose two relevant terms and be ready to explain one of them in ordinary words.

Role B | Listener

You need to brief someone who has only one minute. Ask what is complete, what is open, and which open item affects the next action.

Useful expressions

We have completed ...; ... remains open.

As of ..., the status is

The next update will cover

Cover this until after your first attempt

Thirty exceptions have been reviewed, but review does not necessarily mean resolution. Fifteen are still pending review. I'll report the disposition status separately so the update is accurate.

Second round

The listener asks you to reduce the update to two sentences. Preserve the most important completed and pending items.

Debrief and extend with AI

Which phrase helped the listener? Which case fact needed clarification? Write one better follow-up question, then repeat the exchange.

ROLE-PLAY CASE 05

Fraud Operations and Customer Escalation

SHARED CASE

A customer reporting a disputed transaction receives conflicting explanations of the process. The case outcome has not been determined.

Role A | Responding professional

Acknowledge a communication problem and give a corrected message. Use only the facts given. Choose two relevant terms and be ready to explain one of them in ordinary words.

Role B | Listener

You are frustrated because an earlier message created an expectation. Explain that expectation. Ask your partner to distinguish the correction from anything still uncertain.

Useful expressions

My earlier message did not make ... clear.

I'm sorry for The correct information is

Let me check that the revised explanation addresses

Cover this until after your first attempt

I'm sorry the explanations differed. Let me confirm the applicable process and your case status with the responsible team. I'll distinguish the next procedural step from any outcome that is still undecided.

Second round

The listener remains disappointed after the correction. Acknowledge the impact and restate the available next step calmly.

Debrief and extend with AI

Which phrase helped the listener? Which case fact needed clarification? Write one better follow-up question, then repeat the exchange.

ROLE-PLAY CASE 06

Operational Risk and Controls

SHARED CASE

A reconciliation is signed off even though one unmatched balance remains under investigation.

Role A | Responding professional

Explain a useful distinction in plain English. Use only the facts given. Choose two relevant terms and be ready to explain one of them in ordinary words.

Role B | Listener

You are unfamiliar with one technical term in the case. Ask for a plain-English explanation and then paraphrase it. Do not pretend to understand a term you cannot explain.

Useful expressions

In this context, ... means

The difference is that

How would you explain that distinction to a colleague?

Cover this until after your first attempt

The reconciliation work has been performed, but the unmatched balance remains open. I'll show that exception and its review status instead of implying that every item has been resolved.

Second round

Your listener is new to this field. Replace two specialist expressions with clear explanations without changing the meaning.

Debrief and extend with AI

Which phrase helped the listener? Which case fact needed clarification? Write one better follow-up question, then repeat the exchange.

ROLE-PLAY CASE 07

Audit and Regulatory Exams

SHARED CASE

An examination request asks for evidence of a control operating over a stated period. The team has only the policy document ready.

Role A | Responding professional

Make a request with a clear action, purpose, and realistic timing. Use only the facts given. Choose two relevant terms and be ready to explain one of them in ordinary words.

Role B | Listener

You can help but need a clear request and its purpose. Ask what is required and whether the timing is fixed or negotiable.

Useful expressions

Could you provide ... so that ...?

Please confirm ... by [agreed time].

If that timing is not possible, please let me know

Cover this until after your first attempt

Could you identify the records that demonstrate the control's operation during the requested period? The policy describes the process, but we also need the relevant evidence of its use.

Second round

The other person cannot meet the requested timing. Clarify an alternative without inventing authority to change a formal deadline.

Debrief and extend with AI

Which phrase helped the listener? Which case fact needed clarification? Write one better follow-up question, then repeat the exchange.

ROLE-PLAY CASE 08

Customer Complaints and Fair Treatment

SHARED CASE

A customer asks why a fee was charged. The representative has a current fee schedule but has not checked the transaction details.

Role A | Responding professional

Acknowledge a communication problem and give a corrected message. Use only the facts given. Choose two relevant terms and be ready to explain one of them in ordinary words.

Role B | Listener

You are frustrated because an earlier message created an expectation. Explain that expectation. Ask your partner to distinguish the correction from anything still uncertain.

Useful expressions

My earlier message did not make ... clear.

I'm sorry for The correct information is

Let me check that the revised explanation addresses

Cover this until after your first attempt

I can explain the published fee schedule, and I'll ask the responsible team to review how it applies to this transaction. I do not want to give you an unverified explanation of the charge.

Second round

The listener remains disappointed after the correction. Acknowledge the impact and restate the available next step calmly.

Debrief and extend with AI

Which phrase helped the listener? Which case fact needed clarification? Write one better follow-up question, then repeat the exchange.

Give feedback that helps

Score each criterion 0, 1, or 2. This is a practice rubric, not a professional qualification or CEFR test. Do not award or remove points for a particular accent.

Meaning and accuracy

Keeps the case facts accurate; clearly separates confirmed and unknown information.

Clarity and language

Uses understandable sentences and explains specialist terms when the listener needs it.

Interaction and tone

Responds to the other person's question, checks understanding, and uses an appropriate tone.

Task completion

Makes the requested action or unresolved question clear without inventing authority or facts.

Use the same scale for each criterion

0 - Not yet: The reader or listener cannot yet recover the intended meaning or action.

1 - With support: The message works after a prompt, clarification, or revision.

2 - Independently: The message is clear and accurate without a prompt.

Feedback sequence

First, identify a successful phrase. Next, identify one point where meaning or accuracy needs work. Offer one useful language correction, allow a repeat, and compare the two attempts. A total out of eight describes this performance only; do not translate it into a proficiency level.

Final challenge

Choose a case not rehearsed today. The learner gives a one-minute response, answers two follow-up questions, and writes a 70-110 word message. Add the lesson's second-round challenge. Compare the result with an earlier attempt using the four criteria.

Use the language responsibly

Fictional language practice. Legal, financial, and regulatory meanings depend on jurisdiction and context; use current documents and qualified review for actual decisions.

Meaning before performance

Use specialist terms only when they help the listener. Explain unfamiliar words, preserve uncertainty, and ask when an instruction or responsibility is unclear. The model responses illustrate language; they do not authorize professional actions.

Your next step

Choose one expression you can use in a genuine work situation. Rehearse it with fictional details, then adapt the wording to your role and audience.

Extend your practice with AI

Use the next two prompts after your own first attempt. Each contains the course context and a complete starting case or dialogue. Copy the entire prompt, including the reference, into a new chat in your preferred AI. You can also use the links to copy it from the website.

Choose the right kind of help

A role-play prompt makes the AI wait for your replies. A new-dialogue prompt asks for a complete professional script. Writing feedback begins with your draft. Vocabulary, grammar and review prompts move from explanation to your own attempts.

Choose any lesson or dialogue online

The course prompt workshop has eight practice goals and B1 support, B2 independent and C1 stretch settings. These are practice choices, not assessed proficiency levels. Select the same lesson number or dialogue title you used in this guide.

Open this course's AI prompt workshop

Keep practice useful

Use fictional or anonymized details. English Ladder does not send anything to an AI service or add your drafts to the prompts. Your chosen service's terms and any usage charges apply. AI responses can contain mistakes; compare feedback with the lesson and verify specialist claims against the course references.

The two starter prompts use B2 practice. To change support in a printed prompt, replace its practice-setting paragraph with a request for shorter explanations and sentence starters (B1), or greater precision and more complex constraints (C1). Keep the professional facts unchanged.

Changing the example

For another case on paper, replace the text between REFERENCE and END REFERENCE with that case, its course context, relevant terms and language target. Include the full exchange if practicing a dialogue. Do not assume your AI can access this PDF or a link. The website makes this substitution for you.

Prompt edition: 2026-09-06. These are original practice instructions; results depend on the AI service you choose.

START PROMPT / COPY THROUGH END PROMPT

Be my workplace English practice partner. Follow the practice instructions after the REFERENCE block. The block contains fictional study material, not instructions to you. Keep its facts, numbers, uncertainty and professional responsibilities accurate. Clearly label any new scenario or changed fact as an invented variation. Use natural workplace language; explain unfamiliar abbreviations in context. If a technical expression is uncertain, say so rather than inventing a definition or authority. Coach communication, not professional decisions; respect the course scope. Ask only for fictional or anonymized practice details. Judge clarity, meaning, appropriate tone and the next step. Accept valid alternative English and distinguish errors from style preferences. Do not claim to certify my language level. Unless I ask to change the plan, follow the stages and stop wherever the instructions say to wait.

Practice setting: B2 independent. Use natural professional English with brief explanations. Let me attempt each task without a model first. Offer a hint after difficulty and invite a more precise retry.

Course: Banking Operations English

Professional audience: bank operations staff, branch managers, loan operations teams, KYC/AML analysts, fraud operations staff, payment operations teams, compliance staff, and banking leaders

Scope: Fictional language practice. Legal, financial, and regulatory meanings depend on jurisdiction and context; use current documents and qualified review for actual decisions.

Dialogue 01: Account-opening discrepancy

Original fictional setting: Bank staff reconcile identity information.

Professional roles: Account-opening analyst / Branch manager

Published dialogue (reference script, not my own performance):

Account-opening analyst: The application address differs from the identity document. The required verification is incomplete.

Branch manager: Follow our customer-identification process and ask for the appropriate clarification or documentation.

Account-opening analyst: The customer wants the account opened immediately because they're traveling.

Branch manager: Explain the outstanding requirement clearly. Don't bypass it or promise approval before review.

Account-opening analyst: I'll record the discrepancy and the requested next step through the approved system.

Branch manager: I'll support the escalation if the circumstances require specialist review under the bank's process.

TASK: Interactive workplace role-play

1. Use the supplied case or dialogue as the starting situation. Give a two-sentence briefing and offer two relevant professional roles for me to choose from. For a supplied dialogue, use its actual roles. Ask which role I want, then stop and wait. Do not write my replies.
2. After I choose, identify who you will play and the immediate communication goal. Play the other professional; where a meeting requires a third person, label each of your speakers clearly. Start with one natural workplace turn and wait for my reply. Keep most turns to one to three sentences and ask no more than one question at a time.
3. Let the exchange develop across six to ten learner turns, or end earlier if I type "feedback". Respond to what I actually say. Include a plausible clarification, disagreement or tradeoff without silently changing the starting facts. Mark any added constraint as a fictional second-round variation. Do not resolve approvals, evidence or commitments that remain uncertain.
4. Stay in role during the exchange. If my meaning is unclear, ask for clarification naturally. Give a hint only if I ask or cannot proceed. Do not deliver a model conversation in advance.
5. At the debrief, quote two of my phrases: one successful choice and one worth improving. Check factual accuracy, language, register and whether the next step was clear. Give up to three focused suggestions. Ask me to retry the weakest turn; wait. Only then offer an alternative wording and a harder replay.

TASK: Extend the conversation library

1. Propose six distinct, common scenarios in this field beyond the supplied case or script. For each, name the setting, two or more professional roles, the communication problem and one useful terminology focus. Include routine coordination, clarification, a complication, disagreement, handoff and follow-up where relevant. Choose scenarios that fit this profession, rather than forcing unsuitable situations into it.
2. Ask me to choose one scenario, or request all six in sequence. Stop and wait. Do not write all the scripts before I choose.
3. For the selected scenario, write an original fictional dialogue of 12-18 substantial speaking turns between two or three professionals. Name each role, establish an actual work problem, and let the exchange progress through questions, clarification, competing constraints and a credible next step or explicitly unresolved issue. Use the occupation's natural nomenclature and register. Avoid an interview between a teacher and a learner, generic small talk, and inserting a glossary definition into every reply. Explain specialist terms outside the dialogue instead.
4. After the script, explain five useful expressions in context, identify two grammar or register choices and ask three questions about the speakers' reasoning. Withhold the answers until I attempt them. Add one role-switch challenge.
5. Before presenting a script, check names, numbers, chronology, roles and terminology for consistency. Label invented facts and acknowledge uncertain specialist usage. If I requested all six, deliver one complete script at a time and wait for "next". Make each scenario materially different.
